Demos Select New Officials

Archie Ewing, representing the 67th Assembly District, has been elected chairman of the reorganized 17th Congressional District Council. Elected to other offices to serve the new 17th District area were Sam Flood, vice chairman; Marian Bird, recording secretary; Mrs. L. Hunt, corresponding secretary, and Thirvin Fleetwood, treasurer. Reorganization of the group was completed last month under direction of a committee headed by Jim Simmons.

Music Teachers To Hear Talk on Musical Therapy

"Music in Therapy," a project strongly supported by the Music Teachers Assn. of California, will be the subject of a talk by Evelyn Paddock Smith before members of the local branch of the association this evening at 7:30 at the studio of Alfreda Headley, 206 Avenue H, Redondo Beach. Mrs. Smith has served as a volunteer in music therapy at the veterans hospital in Santee for more than 18 years. In addition, she is state chairman of music for the Federation of Women's Clubs, a member of the national committee and state chairman of "Music in Hospitals" project of

Report Lunch For Volunteers On Thursday

The 1961-62 Harbor Area Community Chest campaign will hold its 1961 report meeting at the Ports O'Call Restaurant in San Pedro, Nov. 9, according to Fred Mill, Chest chairman for the Harbor Area. All 4,735 Chest volunteers in the harbor area has been invited to attend the noon report and luncheon event. Luncheon will cost volunteers $1 and the remainder of the cost will be met by generous firms in the area. Chest leaders have sent out the National Federation of Music Clubs, and is a member of the National Assn. for Music Therapy. Persons interested in this field are being invited to attend today's meeting.

a plea to volunteer workers urging them to reach their individual quotas before the meeting. They asked volunteers to make every effort possible to attend the meeting. Reports by city chairmen in the various harbor area cities on the progress of their campaign will be made and highly-coveted campaign awards will go to those with top records. The last phase of the chest campaign kicked off Thursday with residential workers making a one-day blitz of homes throughout most of the harbor area. Harbor area quota this year is $100,770. The bulk of the funds raised in this campaign is to be allocated for children's health and welfare services.

Parents Watch Student Group

By ALAN SPISAK Student Reporter Parents of the members of the Round Table at Stephen M. White Junior High School met recently in Whitehall on the school campus. The visitors were able to observe a regular meeting of the group, and to note how the organization served the school. A total of 39 parents attended the meeting. Those who brought small children were able to leave them in the care of teachers especially assigned to this duty. After the meeting, the parents enjoyed a coffee period in the school cafeteria.
